1. Job profile

1.1. Overall purpose

The job holder, under the supervision of the Head of the ‘Policy, evaluation and content coordination’ (POL) unit and in close collaboration with other scientific staff and the staff of the Communication unit, will provide transversal support for analysis and reporting on the European drug situation. The core tasks of this post will be to strengthen the EMCDDA’s capacity to produce efficiently high quality and scientifically sound outputs (publications, sections of the website, events, etc.) tailored to the needs of the different target audiences of the Centre. For this purpose the job holder will support the Centre’s scientific analysts in drafting technical outputs for different audiences. The post requires a combination of strong analytical and data analysis skills, good communication skills, an understanding of the scientific issues related to the work of the EMCDDA and an ability to draft high quality technical documents for a variety of internal and external audiences.

In order to ensure efficient execution of tasks, the vehicular language for this post has been defined as English.

The job holder will report directly to the Head of the ‘Policy, evaluation and content coordination’ unit.

1.2. Main duties

The successful applicant will be requested to contribute to the following tasks:

- Under the guidance of the Head of unit, the preparation, drafting and editing of technical reports, process reports and other scientific content;

- Support scientific staff in their production of both ad hoc and scheduled EMCDDA outputs (publications, web content, articles, etc.) by assisting as required with conceptualisation, data analysis, scientific review and writing;
- Coordinate the production of specific outputs requiring synthesis of data from different project areas and to ensure that they are of high quality. This will typically require liaison with statistical and data management staff, scientific staff, a communications team member and sometimes external experts;

- Provide a 'fire-fighting' and back-up role for the technical work of the unit in order to provide extra capacity and expertise to ensure outputs are of high quality and produced in a timely manner;

- Any other tasks assigned by the Head of unit.

2. Job requirements

2.1. Eligibility requirements

The following requirements shall be met by the deadline for applications:

- A level of education which corresponds to completed university studies of at least three years attested by a diploma;

- At least three years of relevant professional experience starting with the first position occupied after the completion of the diploma or certificate required for admission to this selection procedure, as mentioned above;

- Be a national of one of the Member States of the European Union or Norway;

- Have fulfilled any obligations imposed by the applicable laws concerning military service;

- Produce the appropriate character references as to the suitability for the performance of the required duties;

- Be physically fit to perform his/her duties (1);

Candidates are kindly requested to send their applications as separate sheets without stapling or binding them together. In order to ensure the reception of applications, we strongly recommend sending your application by registered mail. Please note that no hand delivery applications will be considered.

The closing date for submission of applications is: 28.03.2013 at 17h00, Lisbon time (date and hour of postmark, fax or e-mail count).

For applications to be valid, applicants shall include the following documents:

- A motivation letter, in English or in French (maximum 1 A4 page);
- An application form duly completed in English or French and signed; and
- A Curriculum Vitae in English or in French in European format (see http://europass.cedefop.europa.eu/europass/home/vernav/Europasss+Documents/Europass+CV/navigate.action)

NB: All personal data collected for this selection process will only be used for the purposes of this selection procedure and will in no case be transmitted to any third party. Any data provided will be treated in the strictest confidence and with high standards of security. All documents provided to the EMCDDA during this selection procedure will be kept in the EMCDDA's files and will not be returned to applicants. Application documents will only be kept for as long as it is mandatory to fulfil the requirements of existing auditing/control procedures applicable to the EMCDDA.

For further details please read carefully the 'Declaration of confidentiality and data protection' as published in the EMCDDA website at the following link: http://www.emcdda.europa.eu/html.cfm/index49260EN.html

Prior to contract signature, the successful candidate will be asked to provide original or certified copies proving his/her eligibility.

4. Selection procedure

The selection will be carried out in two phases:

(1) In the first phase, the selection committee will analyse applications to verify the eligibility of the candidates and assess their compliance with the requirements specified in this call for application. Failure to comply with one of the eligibility requirements (set out in 2.1. above) shall result in the exclusion of the applicant concerned from the selection procedure.

On this basis, the selection committee will select the candidates that obtain at least 60 % of the total points available to rank their compliance with the essential requirements (set out in 2.2.a. above) out of a maximum of 10 points each, and with the advantageous requirements (set out in 2.3.a. above) out of a maximum of 5 points each. The maximum number of invitees for the interview shall be 10. The ceiling of 10 applicants to be invited for interview may be adapted to the number of applications received by decision of the appointing/contracting authority.

(2) The second phase will consist of an interview and a written test. Interviews will be held by the selection committee. The candidates will be assessed on the basis of the essential requirements mentioned above (under 2.2.b) out of a maximum of 10 points each and the advantageous requirements (set out in 2.3.b above) out of a maximum of 5 points each. Candidates will be asked to undergo a written test related to the European integration and institutions, the EMCDDA, as well as the nature of duties to be performed to be assessed out of a maximum of 30 points.

The assessment is based on the outcome of the written test covering the global understanding and specific questions related to the field of work, and on the interview as indicated under 2.2 and 2.3 above.

Please note that the selection committee's work and deliberations are strictly confidential and that any contact, direct or indirect, with its members is strictly forbidden. The confidentiality principle is intrinsic to all steps of the recruitment procedure and is in accordance with Article 6 of Annex III to the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Communities.

Due to the large volume of applications, only candidates selected for the second phase will be contacted. Candidates who have not been contacted by the EMCDDA by 31.5.2013 should consider that their application has been unsuccessful. For up-to-date information on the process of this selection procedure please visit the EMCDDA's website at the following link:

Applicants invited for the second phase may be entitled to a flat-rate contribution towards travelling and subsistence expenses. Information will be provided together with the invitation letter.

5. Reserve list and engagement

The work of the selection committee ends with the preparation of a draft reserve list of candidates considered suitable to occupy the position advertised, to be proposed to and approved by the appointing/contracting authority of the EMCDDA.

Only candidates who reach 70 % of the marking points available for the second phase can be included in the reserve list for appointment. On the basis of the adopted reserve list, the appointing/contracting authority of the EMCDDA may offer a contract of engagement. Candidates shall note that the inclusion in the reserve list does not guarantee that recruitment, which will depend, among other things, on availability of vacant posts and budget.

The established reserve list may be used in order to fill similar positions within the EMCDDA.

The reserve list will be valid until 31.12.2015 and may be extended by decision of the EMCDDA appointing/contracting authority.

6. Conditions of employment

6.1. Legal framework

A contract offer will be made pursuant the Conditions of employment of other servants of the European Communities, (see http://ec.europa.eu/civil_service/docs/toc100_en.pdf), for a five-year period.

The place of employment will be Lisbon, Portugal, where the EMCDDA has its seat.
6.2. Pay and welfare benefits

The job holder's monthly basic salary, for AD6 step 1 will be approximately EUR 4,900. In addition to this basic salary, the job holder may be entitled to various allowances, in particular an expatriation or foreign residence allowance and family allowances, including household allowance, dependent child allowance, pre-school allowance and an education allowance.

Under certain circumstances, in particular where the job holder is obliged to change his/her place of residence in order to take up employment, the EMCDDA may also reimburse various expenses incurred on recruitment, notably removal expenses.

The salary of the job holder is subject to a Community tax deducted at source and is exempt from national tax. The salary package will be affected by a weighting factor and includes the European Community social security and pensions schemes.

6.3. Confirmation of engagement and security clearance

Staff engaged by the EMCDDA is required to serve a probationary period of six months. Successful applicants may be required to undergo a security vetting and clearance procedure.

6.4. Declaration of commitment to serve public interest independently

Staff engaged by the EMCDDA is required to make a declaration of commitment to act independently in the public interest and to make a declaration in relation to the interests that might be considered prejudicial to his/her independence.

EMCDDA staff is required to carry out their duties and conduct solely with the interests of the EMCDDA and of the European Community in mind; they shall neither seek nor take instruction from any government, authority, organisation or person outside his institution. EMCDDA staff shall carry out the duties assigned objectively, impartially and in keeping with the duty of loyalty to the EMCDDA and to the European Community.

7. Request for review and appeal procedure

A candidate who feels that a mistake has been made during the selection procedure may ask to have his/her application reconsidered by sending, within 20 calendar days from 31.5.2013, a request for review, quoting the number of the selection procedure concerned to the Chairman of the selection committee at the following address:

EMCDDA
Chairman of the selection committee
Cais do Sodré
1249-289 Lisbon
Portugal

The selection committee will reconsider the application and notify the candidate of its decision within 45 calendar days of receipt of the letter.

If a candidate considers that he/she has been adversely affected by a particular decision, he/she can lodge a complaint under Article 90(2) of the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Communities and Conditions of employment of other servants of the European Communities, at the following address:

The EMCDDA Director
Cais do Sodré
1249-289 Lisbon
Portugal
The complaint must be lodged within three months. The time limit for initiating this type of procedure (see Staff Regulations http://eurlex.europa.eu/en/index.htm) starts to run from the time the candidate is notified of the act adversely affecting him/her.

Like all citizens of the European Union, you can make a complaint to the European Ombudsman:

European Ombudsman
1 avenue du Président Robert Schuman —
CS 30403
67001 Strasbourg Cedex
FRANCE

Note that complaints made to the Ombudsman have no suspensive effect on the period laid down in Articles 90(2) and 91 of the Staff Regulations for lodging complaints or for submitting appeals to the Civil Service Tribunal under Article 270 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union. Note also that, under Article 2(4) of the general conditions governing the performance of the Ombudsman’s duties, any complaint lodged with the Ombudsman must be preceded by the appropriate administrative approaches to the institutions and bodies concerned.
